

How to cancel one of the elements to avoid Amp problems.

Please note that these steps must be done by a certified electrician.

Please remove the side heating element cover.

Cancel the bridge that is at the lower part that is connected to the heating element.

Do not forget to fix the rock wool between the cables to enable a good isolation.

Fix the side heating element cover as before.